

MANY IN ATTENDANCE

AT G. A. R. CAMPFIRE
Three Speakers Entertained the Veterans Following Supper.

Stagwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., entertained the Woman's Relief corps, Sons of Veterans and the Citizens' club Friday evening at a campfire at the Birmingham Memorial, having an attendance of over 100 of the post and their guests, who enjoyed a well arranged programme for the evening.

After a cold and cold-meat supper served at 7:30, Bullard's orchestra played popular and other popular music during the supper hour and at the evening. Seated at the table with Commander Henry and other officers of the post were the three speakers of the evening, H. J. Wyckoff of Second Connecticut, Dr. Patrick H. Aiken, and Capt. William A. Aiken, all members of the post.

A solo song was heard in a solo voice, the first being Love Songs by L. L. Wyckoff, for which the speaker was an encore. Come Out, Mr. Wyckoff (singing), and later singing Good Night, Good Night (Ball).

Commander Hovey presented the speakers, Rev. Mr. Wyckoff being first to speak. He was heard with much pleasure by the veterans and their guests, and was followed by Dr. Aiken. The doctor touched upon the reason increase which he said he thought the veterans deserved, and made a lengthy and the record made by Irish soldiers in the revolution, the civil and other wars. General Aiken followed with a brief talk in which he presented in an interesting way his reason for believing in Internationalism.

The compare broke up with the singing of America.

BURNS' ANNIVERSARY

Local Scotchmen Plan to Make It the Biggest Celebration Ever Held Here.

Friday evening there was a meeting of many of the local Scotchmen at the Wauregan house for the purpose of making the preliminary arrangements concerning the annual banquet in observance of the birthday anniversary of Robert Burns, the bard of Scotland. There was a good sized gathering of those interested and it was decided to hold the banquet on the evening of January 23 at the Wauregan house, with a view of making it the largest affair of its kind ever held here.

Several prominent speakers will be secured for the evening, and it is also planned to have some Scotch dances from our out of town come here to help to the entertainment.

The arrangements were left in charge of the committee which so successfully looked after the details last year, and include Harry D. Mitchell, James Hollis, Hild McIntyre, Alexander Sharpe and Gavin Wilson.

SHIPPED ENVELOPE MACHINE

TO AUSTRALIA FIRM

Lester & Wasley Co. Have Been Working Nights Getting Out Orders.

This week there was shipped to Australia a large size envelope machine by the Lester & Wasley Co. to a firm which does the government work there and which has had many other machines from the local factory.

Another machine was shipped to an envelope factory in this city last week and there are several others in the course of manufacture, the factory being busy at the present time and for a week or so was running night.

Cards for the South.

The meeting of the Home Missionary society of the Broadway Congregational church Friday afternoon devoted much time to preparing Christmas cards for Booker T. Washington's people in the south.

HAVE YOU TRIED PAXTINE

The Great Toilet Germicide?

You don't have to pay $50.00 or $100.00 a pint for bacterian antiseptics or germicide. You can make 16 pints of a more cleansing, germicidal, healing and deodorizing antiseptic solution with one tin box of Paxtine—a soluble antiseptic powder, obtainable at any drug store.

Paxtine destroys germs that cause disease, decay and odors—that is why it is the best mouth wash and gargle, and why it purifies the breath, cleanses and preserves the teeth better than ordinary dentifrices, and in sprays bathing it completely eradicates perspiration and other disagreeable body odors. Every dainty woman appreciates this and its many other toilet and hygienic uses.

Paxtine is splendid for sore throat, inflamed eyes and to purify mouth and breath after smoking. You can get Paxtine Toilet Antiseptic at any drug store, price 25c and 50c, or by mail postpaid from The Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass., who will send you a free sample if you would like to try it before buying.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The cold, the biting toes and chills, cold-shivers, red and rough skin, nose chills, and throat troubles. Before Buckler's Arnica Salve. A trial convinces. Greatest healer of Burns, Scalds, Piles, Cuts, Sores, Bruises, Eczema and Sprains. Only 25c at Lee & Osmond Co.'s.

With the Coming of Middle Age

There is a letting down in the physical forces often shown in annoying and painful kidney and bladder ailments and urinary irregularities. Foley Kidney Pills are a splendid regulating and strengthening medicine at such a time. Try them. Lee & Osmond Co.

WEDDING.

Walcott—Morse.

A large company of friends were in attendance at the marriage of Miss Margaret Morse, daughter of Rev. Dr. Oliver C. Morse, a former secretary of the Washington Y. M. C. A., from 1878 to 1881, now residing in Greenlaw, L. I., and granddaughter of the late Judge John Penn Jones of this city, says the Washington, D. C., Evening Star of December 9, and Dr. William Hunt Walcott, formerly of Washington, now of West Virginia, which took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Gertrude Jones, 1329 Eleventh street, northwest.

The parlors of the old homestead were prettily decorated in green and white, a canopy of green spruces with daisies on a trelliswork having been erected at one end of the front parlor, under which the bride and groom were seated during the ceremony, which was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. Dr. Walcott of New York, for forty-four years the general secretary of the International Y. M. C. A. of America.

Miss Rebekah Finley Morse, the bride, the sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The best man was Dr. A. W. Eskine of Pennsylvania, a classmate of the bridegroom in the Baltimore Medical college. Dr. Oliver Cox and Mr. Anthony Morse, brother of the bride, were the ushers.

The bride was given in marriage by her oldest brother, Mr. Richard C. Morse, Jr., of Greensburg, Pa. She wore a gown of white satin, covered with braided lace, a tulle veil, and carried a bunch of white and pink sweet peas. The maid of honor wore a gown of muslin over blue silk. A wedding luncheon was served after the ceremony and shortly thereafter Dr. Walcott left Washington with his bride en route for their home in Needmore, W. Va. Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Edward Austin and Rev. and Mrs. Richard C. Morse of New York, the bride's mother, Mrs. Oliver C. Morse, and her brother, Mr. Oliver C. Morse, Jr., master in the Sloyne House school in Newport, R. I., and Miss Mabel A. Walcott of Richmond, Va., sister of the bridegroom.

A Knotty Horse Case. Deputy Sheriff George N. Wood of Montville was in Ninette Thursday afternoon, Dec. 14, following a horse held by Deputy Sheriff J. H. Tubbs to secure a claim of $300 in favor of H. B. Morton for feed sold to C. W. Wood of Jewett City. Wood claimed to own the six horses that were used there for a couple of months hauling timber to the freight yard. After the attachment was made on a Shaver horse deal, and claimed the ownership of the horses, hence the ropey suit. The case is a knotty one and will be fought in the courts. A hearing will be held Tuesday.

Unclaimed Letters.

The list of unclaimed letters at the Norwich postoffice for the week ending Dec. 16, 1911, follows: Isabella (J.) G. G. Judson Adams, Louis Connors, Leon Case, Eleanor Conway, Miss E. Duncan, Margaret Eadie, Edie, Rock Spring Water Co., Greenville Fruit Co., Mrs. Greenman, W. G. Gifford, Master (Gibson), Arthur H. Gifford, Frank G. Head, Amos Main, Nicola Morichiano, Philip arranged for by Reginald Ward and Herman Webster. Miller's orchestra played for the programme of 20 numbers from 9 to 1 o'clock, and refreshments were served.

McNulty, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Noyes, A. Roberts, L. H. Schmidt, Charles E. Swan, Hattie L. Thomas, Edward West.
